

The Town and Country Chorus

NOTES 🎵 NEWS and VIEWS for January 23, 2018

Congratulations to all who managed to find their way to our rehearsal room last week. Most of us discovered for the first time that Perennial Park has a music room, and that is where we practiced. The ceiling is lower than the entry way we normally use and that changes the sound quite a lot. But as Don said, this is good preparation for sing-outs; especially when we don't usually know exactly what our venue is going to be like. But, unless something unforeseen happens between now and Tuesday we'll be back upstairs in our normal area.

SPRING SHOW

Keep working the music. In the last couple of practices, we've changed the sequence of the lyrics a bit on Who Put The Bomb to make it less confusing and perhaps easier to sing. When you see the, "Intro-A-B-A-Tag" behind the song title that is how we're singing it. Don't worry, I believe all who were at rehearsal caught onto it very well (even yours truly managed to follow it). And I know that Jim Hartman has been busy cutting and pasting the score so that we have a better layout on the paper. Meanwhile Don will work at re-recording the learning tracks for this piece and hopefully the two will match.

We have a Spring Show meeting scheduled for 6 pm this Tuesday. Please plan to be there to help keep preparations moving ahead. If you're not already a part of this committee but wish to help out in some way, please come – we welcome you.

CONGRATULATIONS

Lynn Lamberson was our raffle winner last Tuesday and led us in our closer for the evening. Thank you, Lynn.

All for now I suppose -
Stay warm, stay healthy, and we'll see you Tuesday,
Gary
